

Lone Star Strategies for IP in China

What Texas Companies Need To Know Now

Learn from Leading Experts on Intellectual Property Protection and Enforcement in China in a One-Day Seminar

Hosted by the Dallas Bar Association Intellectual Property Section and the U.S. Commercial Service in collaboration with the Texas Regional USPTO

Event Details:

TIME: 8:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m. (CST)

DATE: May 2, 2017

LOCATION: The Belo Mansion, 2101
Ross Avenue, Dallas, Texas 75201

Texas CLE Credit: 5.25 hours (pending)
(Please note $30 non-DBA member fee to claim CLE credit.)

COST: Attendance is free of charge.
$14.95 lunch buffet will be available for purchase.

Parking: $4 per vehicle (DBA discount)

Register here: [https://emenuapps.ita.doc.gov/
ePublic/event/editWebReg.do?SmartCode=7Q9Z](https://emenuapps.ita.doc.gov/ePublic/event/editWebReg.do?SmartCode=7Q9Z)

Registration Deadline: April 28th

Topics Include:

- Chinese Principal Laws on Patents, Trademarks, Copyrights, and Trade Secrets
- Enforcing Your Intellectual Property Rights in China
- Perspectives from Texas companies navigating IP Matters in China
- Brand Protection in an Online Environment and an Interconnected World
- Laws Relating to Importation of Goods

Hosted By:

Have Questions About This Event?

Contact David Royce
with the U.S. Commercial Service
(817) 999-9757 or david.royce@trade.gov.

In collaboration with:

UNITED STATES
PATENT AND TRADEMARK OFFICE

